What are Cold Weather Payments?

The Cold Weather Payment helps cover higher heating costs when temperatures in your area drop below a certain level.

Who Qualifies?

You might qualify for Cold Weather Payments if you receive:

1. You usually qualify if you receive Pension Credit

2. You usually qualify if you receive Income Support, or:

- a disability or pensioner premium
- a disabled child
- Child Tax Credit with a disability or severe disability element
- a child under 5 is living with you

3. You usually qualify if you receive income-related Employment and Support Allowance and are in the work-related activity group or support group. If not, you might still qualify with:

- a severe or enhanced disability premium
- a pensioner premium
- a disabled child
- Child Tax Credit with a disability or severe disability element
- a child under 5 is living with you

4. You usually qualify if you receive Universal Credit and:

- you or your partner are not employed or self-employed
- you have a health condition or disability with limited capability for work
- you have a child under the age of 5 living with you

5. You usually qualify if you receive Support for Mortgage Interest (SMI) and have:

- a severe or enhanced disability premium
- a pensioner premium
- a disabled child
- Child Tax Credit with a disability or severe disability element
- a child under 5 living with you

 If you applied for a qualifying benefit but don't receive it due to high income, you may still be treated as eligible for Cold Weather Payments.

FAQs

How do I get the Cold Weather Payment?

If you meet the criteria to qualify for a Cold Weather Payment, you will automatically receive it.

Does the payment affect my other benefits?

No, Cold Weather Payments won't affect your other benefits.
