

Exemption of Dental Charges

Who Qualifies?

You could receive free dental treatment if you're:

- ✓ Under 19's in full-time education
- ✓ A pregnant woman or has had a child in the last 12 months
- ✓ Claiming Working Tax Credit with a disability or severe disability component, or Child Tax Credit with or without any rate of Working Tax Credit, and your relevant income for tax credit purposes is £15,050 or less, and you are named on a valid NHS tax credit exemption certificate
- ✓ Receiving pension credit
- ✓ An asylum seeker who is supported by the National Asylum Support Service and are named on a HC2 certificate

 Make sure you get a receipt for the amount you paid to claim it back!

What is it?

This is where you could receive free dental treatment by applying for an NHS Low Income Scheme or applying for a refund after the dental care.

 Patients who are not entitled to free NHS treatment have to pay a specified proportion of the cost.

FAQs

How does it work?

Patients who find they were eligible for free or reduced treatment after paying can claim a refund by completing an HC5(D) form and sending it with their original receipt to the NHSBSA.

Is there a time limit to claiming?

You have to claim a refund of NHS dental charges three months from the date of your receipt.

I've just found out I can get free dental care. Can I get a refund on previous treatments?

Download and complete a HC5\(D\) refund form from the NHSBSA website. Once you've completed this, remember to also provide proof of treatment by attaching your original dental receipt to the form. You should receive a receipt within three months of the payment date.

Does this refund apply to private treatment?

No, there is no help towards private treatment, whatever your income.

Is there a maximum charge?

There is a maximum patient charge and this is currently £372.
