

Disabled Persons Railcard

Who Qualifies?

To apply for a Disabled Persons Railcard you must meet the following criteria:

- ✓ Receive Personal Independence Payment (PIP), Attendance Allowance or War Pensioners' Mobility Supplement
- ✓ Receive Child Disability Allowance at either the higher or lower rate for the mobility component, or the higher or middle rate for the care component
- ✓ Have a visual or hearing impairment
- ✓ Have epilepsy
- ✓ Buy or lease a vehicle through the Motability scheme

How To Apply

You can apply online or by post.
You can choose either a digital or a physical Railcard (see page 2 for more information).

What you'll need:

- A device with the Railcard App (if you want a digital Railcard)
- A passport-style photo saved on your device or computer
- Proof that you're eligible
- A valid debit or credit card

What Is It?

A Disabled Persons Railcard is for adults with a disability or long-term health condition. It costs £20 and gives you and a travelling companion a third off all adult rail fares, plus additional discounts at selected restaurants and hotels.

You will need to provide proof when you apply for your Railcard.

- For PIP, AA and Child DLA, you will need a copy of your award letter.
- For a visual impairment you will need a copy of your Certificate of Visual Impairment (CVI). For a hearing impairment you will need a copy of the front page of your NHS battery book or a copy of your dispensing prescription from a private hearing aid supplier. Alternatively, if you download the application form, there is a 'Social Services Stamp' section which you can complete.
- If you have epilepsy you will need a copy of your Exemption Certificate for epilepsy medication and a photocopy of your prescription for epilepsy medication.
- Finally, if you buy or lease a car through the Motability scheme you will need a copy of the leasing or hire-purchase agreement, dated within the past 12 months.

Lost, Stolen Or Damaged Railcards

Lost Or Damaged

Replacement costs £5 (1-year) or £10 (3-year). You can also apply for a replacement over the phone or in writing, please use the contact number or postal address listed in this fact sheet. Unfortunately, until you get your replacement Railcard, you will have to pay the full fare and you will be unable to claim back any lost discounts if you've travelled in that time.

Stolen

Free replacement with a police crime reference number.

Digital Railcard

You can sign in on up to 2 devices – just re-download the Railcard App.
